My Complaint Notebook

Years ago, Bill Gibson, a dear preacher friend of mine in Oklahoma, told me a similar story to the one I want to share with you this week. It really makes you think. I discovered this little article some time ago. Read it carefully and prayerfully.

A certain minister kept on his desk a notebook labeled, “Complaints of Members Against Other Members.” When someone called to tell him about the faults of another, the minister would say, “Here’s my complaint book. I’ll write down what you say, and you can sign it. Then when I have to take up the matter officially, I shall know what testimony to expect from you.” The sign of an open notebook and the ready pen always had its effect. “Oh, no! I couldn’t sign anything like that!” the member would protest, and no entry would be made in the book.

The minister said that he kept the complaint book for over 40 years, and had opened it a thousand times, but had never had occasion to write a single word in it.

Making the critic face the person he criticized often ends the matter right there!

A large amount of fabric and a number of crafting books have been donated to us. They are laid out in the bus barn for anyone interested to look through and take what they would like. See Eileen Ford for assistance.

We will begin having youth devotionals following evening services, twice a month. The Boyle Family has offered to host on the second Sunday evening of each month. Anyone who would be willing to host on a fourth Sunday, please sign up on the credenza for the month of your choice. Pre-teens are invited to attend these devotionals as well!

Richard Kliewer has resigned his position as deacon, due to his health. Richard, we THANK YOU for your many years of dedicated service as a deacon for our congregation!

POWERFUL PRAYER WARRIORS,

Please pray specifically for these three students this week:
