Did Noah Grow WEARY?

Do you ever become “weary in well doing”?

You know what is the right thing to do. You apply your energy to do your very best. You remember the words of the apostle Paul, saying, “...whatsoever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men” (Col. 3:23). You try to comply. But after a while, the daily grind begins to take its toll.

The motivation is right. You are committed to serving the Lord—but sometimes the work seems so vast and your talents so limited. Then the question arises, “What’s the use?”

I wonder if ol’ Noah ever got discouraged? He must have preached for over one hundred years. The results were very meager, but he continued to be a preacher of righteousness. Do you suppose he was ever tempted to say, “I’m going to quit! It’s obvious my preaching is a waste of time!” Most Christians have run up against that wall at one time or another.

And think about that ark. It was no weekend project. I can almost hear Noah saying after about sixty years of constant work, “I’m never going to get this thing finished. Did God really tell me to build something this big, or was I dreaming? I’ll be fortunate if the termites don’t eat it up before I’m done.”

Sometimes the magnitude of the work before us causes us to lose heart. Self-appointed critics dull our enthusiasm. A seeming lack of progress in obtaining results weakens resolve and causes us to feel like a spinning top slowly winding down and ready to topple over.

It’s good then to pause and hear Noah sawing, hammering and preaching!

*“And let us not be weary in well doing:
for in due season we shall reap,
if we faint not.” Galatians 6:9*

VERSES OF THE WEEK: Rev. 21:2-4

<sup>2</sup>Then I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. <sup>3</sup>And I heard a loud voice from heaven saying, "Behold, the tabernacle of God [is] with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people. God Himself will be with them [and be] their God. <sup>4</sup>And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes; there shall be no more death, nor sorrow, nor crying. There shall be no more pain, for the former things have passed away."

it didn't happen!
