DID SOMEBODY SPIT ON ME?

Every now and then, somebody quits attending because someone hurt their feelings. When we consider this, it doesn't make sense for us to take it out on God when He had nothing to do with what hurt our feelings. Someone suggested that asking these questions would help:

- Did anyone spit on me? They did Jesus.
- Did anyone beat me on the back? They did Him.
- Did anyone press a crown of thorns on my brow? They did His.
- Did anyone hang me on a cross? They did Jesus.

They did all this to Him and more. Yet, He did not quit because He came to pay the price for OUR salvation. Anyone who lets anyone or anything cause them to forsake the Lord Jesus has forgotten the price paid for them.

The Sew Loved ladies ministry will be making teddy bears to donate to first responders to hand out to children in need. If anyone would like to help with this project, a few supplies or money for purchasing supplies are needed: soft fabrics such as felt, fleece or flannel, embroidery floss (specifically black for eyes and mouth), polyester fiberfill for stuffing, gallon-sized Ziplock bags (to keep teddys clean) and money for any additional supplies (specifically printable iron-on transfer paper for tags). Questions or comments? See Fern Boyle. Thank you!
