Prayer Isn't a 9-1-1 Call

Pulitzer-Prize-winning war correspondent Ernie Pyle once wrote, “there are no atheists in foxholes.” His observation is a sad and profound commentary on the human condition. The lost are afraid to die. Rightfully so. And when they believe their own mortality is near, they pray for divine rescue, “just in case” God exists.

When I was a new Christian, I, too, believed that God was good for “emergency calls” only. I didn’t want to “bother” Him with ordinary things. That was small thinking; God is much greater than that!

What about you, my brothers and sisters? Do you pray to our Heavenly Father only when you need Him to bail you out?

We are so blessed! The Almighty Heavenly Father and Creator of the universe is our Father!

Meditate on that for a moment. Our Father is Creator of the universe and all things in it. And, as insignificant as we are, He wants a relationship with us.

Prayer is a powerful privilege Jesus gave us through His sacrifice on the cross. Use it to build a relationship with God.

In God’s perfect plan, He made Jesus our High Priest. He is our Mediator Who implores our Father for us. Can you think of a more beautiful way to approach the Holy of Holies for our needs? Get close to Him.

Yes, God knows your wants and needs before you know them. But, He wants you to humble yourself and ask anyway. He wants to know your faith is in His wonderful and gracious providence. He wants to know that you need Him. Bow before His throne and tell Him so.

Like me, many of you are parents. There is nothing more wonderful than getting a phone call from my daughters. It doesn’t matter what we talk about. What matters is that they want our connection.

Your Father God wants to hear from His children, too... that’s you! Talk to Him today. Put your Heavenly Father on “speed-dial.”

—in His service, dan
