CALLED BY GOD

We are called to be saved (2 Thess. 2:13-14). The most important call from God is the call to be saved. You must be born again (John 3:5). It's a universal call (Acts 10:34-37). Some believe God only calls the elect and the non-elect don't get called (Acts 10:34-35; 2 Pet. 3:9). Listen, God calls and we answer. You're not saved because of how good you answered the call. You answer the call because God is good. In reaction to that theology, some have gone too far the other way and say it's all up to us. They claim that we save ourselves. Blasphemy! If you have never responded to God's call, then why not answer His call today?

We are called to a life of change. God calls us to be something before He ever calls us to do something. You are called to live in such a way that we make Jesus look good. We are called to be conformed to the likeness of Jesus (Rom. 8:29-30). We are called to live a holy life (1 Pet. 1:16). Are you allowing God to change you? If not, God is calling you to a life of change.

We are called to serve (Mk. 3:13). The Holy Spirit has given you a gift that He expects you to use in the Kingdom. Service is a high calling in the Kingdom of God. Are you using your gift or gifts to serve the body of Christ? If not, you have a call you need to answer.

Have you answered God's call on your life? If not, God is waiting for you to answer His call.

God bless,

Ray
