VAIN EXPECTATIONS

Our lives are enriched with expectations—a vacation, a new baby, a major purchase. Many of our expectations have been or will be fulfilled, especially if they are realistic. However, some of our expectations are vain and will never be realized. These vain expectations we call disappointments.

A vain expectation in spiritual matters is not only disappointing, but can be tragic. Note some of these vain expectations:

It is vain to expect salvation by faith only. Salvation by faith only is a popular false doctrine. Faith is necessary (Hebrews 11:6), but this faith must lead to obedience. James emphasizes that a faith that does not work is dead and will not save (James 2:14-16). It is vain to expect God to hear our prayers without our heeding His word. Proverbs 28:9 says, “One who turns away his ear from hearing the law, even his prayer is abomination.” Peter writes, “For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and His ears are open to their prayers; but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil” (1 Peter 3:12).

It is vain to expect knowledge without study. Those who know the Bible are those who have spent time studying it. Paul said, “when you read, you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ” (Ephesians 3:4).

It is vain to expect the Christian life to be free from the problems that are common to mankind. Being a Christian gives no guarantee that one will never get sick, suffer financial loss or “walk through the valley of the shadow of death.” We can expect such difficulties and look to the Lord for strength in facing them.

It is vain to expect a better time to serve the Lord than now. As Felix waited for a “more convenient season” to obey God, so do many today. But such expectation is vain.

Let us make sure our expectations of a spiritual nature are based upon the Word of God.
