God's Rx For Spiritual Health

Unless you've been stranded on a deserted island for a very long time, you know we're in the midst of evil. As of this writing, there are more than 12 major conflicts, insurgences, and civil wars wreaking havoc across the globe, affecting hundreds of millions of people.

America herself – whose founding fathers stood firmly on God's principles – has removed God from its schools, from public places and events, and from the workplace. False teachers – who, via the Internet, can spread their lies 24-365 – flood our homes, cars, and smartphones with fallacious messages that warp Scripture and mock Jesus Christ. And most recently, the adversary is targeting our children and deceiving them about their own gender that God has so beautifully bestowed upon them.

With all this turmoil, it's hard sometimes to resist getting overwhelmed and feeling helpless, perhaps even hopeless. Beware. If despair gets a grip on us, it can shake our faith. Worse, it can distract us from staying the course and doing God's work.

God knows trials will test our faith, as the apostle James wrote in Jas. 1:2-3: "Count it all joy, my brothers, when you meet trials of various kinds, for you know that the testing of your faith produces steadfastness."

So, how do we overcome these trials and attain faith that is unwavering? The answer, of course, lies in God's Word.

Ask God for strength, guidance, and hope. Perhaps one of the best-known verses that encourages prayer is Mark 11:24 – Jesus says, "Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours."

Read your Bible often for knowledge and comfort. You'll instantly feel better. Think of it as God's first-aid kit for your soul.

Know that the war against the adversary is won. Jesus has defeated death. And He will come again to claim His own.

1 Cor. 15:58
