GOD LISTENS

Have you ever stopped in the middle of a sentence or in the middle of telling a story because you thought the person you were talking to was not listening? It is quite a joy when the person notices and encourages you to continue. You feel rather down and worthless when the person does not notice. While there are many reasons that a person might not be listening, we can take assurance in one very important thing. God listens always.

God listens and internalizes what we say to Him. He does not simply let us ramble on without our words sinking in, affecting Him in a personal manner. What we tell God is important to Him. He wants to know what we have to say. He wants us to talk to Him. He even commands that we talk to Him (1 Thessalonians 5:17). God listened when Abraham pleaded with Him not to destroy Sodom and Gomorrah if ten souls could be found (Genesis 18:16-33). God listened to Moses when God was ready to wipe all of the Israelites off the face of the earth for their continued refusal to obey and trust Him (Exodus 32:10-14). God listened to Gideon when he asked that the fleece be wet and the ground around it be dry and again when Gideon asked that the ground be wet and the fleece dry (Judges 6:36-40). God listened to Samson when he asked for strength one last time (Judges 16:28-30). God listened to David as he pled for protection and revenge against his enemies and as he expressed thanksgiving for the blessings God had provided him. God listened to Elijah and held the rains from falling (1 Kings 17:1-7). God listened to Daniel as he praved when the law of the land forbade it (Daniel 6:1-23). God listened to His only son in the garden prior to His being nailed on the cross (Matthew 26:26-46). God listened to His son's cry from the cross (Luke 23:46).

God listened to each one. He cared for each one, and He cares for each of us. He does not always answer in ways we see or use the timetable we construct or provide the outcome that we deem best, but God listens. While others might turn us off or never even begin to listen, God always listens. For our own good, we need to allow Him that opportunity every day.

BULLETIN DIGEST (Feb 2013) 1002 N Johnson St McCrory, AR 72101 Jamie Cox via Mars Hill church of Christ Florence, AL

"By awesome deeds you answer us with righteousness. O God of our salvation, the hope of all the ends of the earth and of the farthest seas;" (Psalm 65:5)

Donny Hutchinson (Friend of Ray Rose)...He will be having a heart cath done this week. Also, he has a cancerous nodule on his lung and will start radiation treatment after his heart issue is taken care of.

Joe (Brother of Reinaldo Martinez)...He has cancer and may not live much longer.

Zane Johnston...She has been in and out of the hospital the past couple of weeks. Initially, they found a large ulcer and cauterized it. She also received several units of blood. They haven't found any other cause of bleeding, and she is back home at the Commons once again and feeling better.

Lisa Mitchell (Sister of Jeff Watkins) ... She had hernia surgery on Wednesday, and everything went smoothly.

Nicholas Endicott......He is recovering from whooping cough.

Please continue to lift these loved ones up in prayer:

Daniel Osburn (Son of Garry & Calvina)...His left foot is finally healing, but very slowly. Because he has had to put so much extra pressure on his right foot, it developed a open sore that had to be cut out. Please pray for quick healing of both his feet.

Randy Barrett (Deacon at Alva congregation)...He is going to the Mayo Clinic for tests. He may need a kidney transplant.
