

“THE FRUIT OF THE SPIRIT: JOY”

(Gal. 5:22)

TOUGH QUESTIONS

1. How many unbiblical doctrines does it take to no longer be the Lord’s church?
2. Was there ever a perfect church to look to and pattern ourselves after?
3. Does any church follow God’s will perfectly?
4. Would you consider a church that had serious problems with division, immorality, brothers suing one another, improper observance of the Lord’s supper, and doubts the resurrection of the dead to be the Lord’s church?
5. Are all commands equal and necessary to be the church of Christ?
6. What if you are wrong about some of your beliefs, does that mean you are lost?
7. Have you ever wondered why some additions to the law were unacceptable and others were acceptable? For example, Nadab and Abihu were killed for using strange fire in their worship (Lev. 10), and David added instrumental music in worship and God was good with it (2 Chron. 29:25). Why is one addition acceptable while the other is not?

God bless, Ray
