HAPPY THANKSGIVING

1 Thess. 5:18

"In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you." Notice the preposition: "in every thing," not "for every thing."

Give thanks to God for ...

His character (Psalm 100:1-5) Dwell on His character and let it thrill your heart.

What aspect of God's character are you thankful for? What attribute of God leads you to praise Him? Thank God for His love, grace, mercy, sovereignty, patience, kindness, presence, compassion, faithfulness, power, etc.

His blessings (Ephesians 1:3-14) How has God blessed you?

Thank God for the forgiveness of sins, promise of heaven, adoption into God's family, the indwelling Holy Spirit, God's presence in our suffering, assurance of salvation, etc.

His church (Acts 2:40-47) Are you thankful for the church?

Thank God for the fellowship of brothers and sisters; your preacher, elders, teachers, or maybe someone specific who disciplined you — who taught you God's Word or who was pivotal in you coming to Christ or growing in your faith.

His Word (2 Tim. 3:16-17) Are you thankful for the promises of God in Scripture?

What promise or passage has been particularly meaningful to you lately? Thank God for a specific promise or passage that you regularly go back to.

Thank Him for our food (1 Tim. 4:3-5) Are you thankful for all of the good food that God has provided for you?

What is your favorite meal? What food have you enjoyed recently? Thank God for your favorite meal, snack, drink, dessert, spice, sauce, condiment, flavor, your favorite home-cooked meal, or your favorite restaurant meal.

He heals us of our diseases (Psa. 103:1-5) Are you thankful for your health?

What aspect of your health (or that of loved ones) can you give thanks for? How has God sustained you in your health? Thank God for the gift of health, strength, medicine, surgery, doctors, and nurses.

His providence (Romans 8:28) Are you thankful for the providence of God?

In what specific ways have you seen the providence of God in your life? I am very thankful to God for making everything in my life work out for my good.

—God bless, Ray
