If You Need Anything, Just Call!

We often say those words to a brother or sister in need when wrapping up a phone call or visit. After all, the Bible instructs us to take care of our Christian family. And Jesus clearly exemplified that role many, many times.

Those six words certainly sound noble enough. They demonstrate our willingness to sacrifice personal time and resources to come to the aid of members of our flock.

But, it's a trap! Using that seemingly benevolent phrase is precisely the Adversary's cunning way of convincing us that we've "checked the box" as a faithful Christian who has helped our brethren. Past tense.

Why is it a trap? Because it's an empty string of words. Our offer to help too often never actually translates into help. To put it bluntly, we haven't helped at all! It's no more than a copout.

A better approach is to ask, "how can I help you?" Everyone has doctor's appointments. Everyone needs food for their table. Many have special needs like home maintenance or yard work or errands, etc., etc.

Of course, this attitude demands that we know our brethren by forging solid relationships and, just as importantly, anticipating their needs. We are particularly commanded to tend to our family's needs. Our sick. Our disadvantaged. Our elderly. Our widows and widowers.

That is exactly what Christ's church is about! How can we expect to obey Christ's mission to evangelize the world if we don't first take care of our own?

—in His service, dan

Prayer List:

Polly Watkins... She is having hip problems and may have a labral tear. She will be seeing a specialist soon.

Rex Mitchell (Husband of Lisa)... He recently had a stroke and the doctors found evidence he has had a previous one as well. He also has a 70% blockage in an artery in his neck. Since getting back home, he has been feeling better.

Misty Walker (Sister of Bill David)... She will be trying a new type of chemo, starting this week if her white blood cell count is high enough.

Larry Beam & Family... Jonnie passed away on Tuesday.

Virginia Springer... She fell on Sunday and has a cracked vertebrae in her lower back. Surgery is not required, but she will have to wear a brace for 10 to 12 weeks.

Family of Eddie Morris (Cousin of Polly Watkins)... Eddie passed away on Thursday, January 8th.

Doug Boyle... He was diagnosed with gout. He is also still having chest pains and will see his cardiologist on the 27th.

Patsy Gritz... She is in Integris Hospital, Room 220. She had surgery on Monday afternoon to repair her torn colon. She will be moving to Skilled Nursing soon.
