SPEAKING LIFE, NOT DEATH

Countless times we have witnessed gossip, or even taken part in it ourselves, not realizing how dangerous it truly is. It can destroy friendships, relationships, marriages or even jobs. Our tongue is powerful, and we must use it wisely, because gossip can destroy someone's life in ways we never intended. But most of all, it goes against God's word. James 1:22: “Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says.” God calls us not to deceive ourselves with His word, but to obey what it says.

Throughout scripture, we are clearly taught that gossip is wrong. Proverbs 16:28: “A perverse person stirs up conflict, and a gossip separates close friends.” Proverbs 11:13: “A gossip betrays a confidence, but a trustworthy person keeps a secret.” Solomon, the young man who asked God for wisdom—the man who wrote these words—gives us guidance. These are words of wisdom for all who desire knowledge, and we must seek it from God's word and from Solomon, who was blessed by God.

Most importantly, if our words do not uplift one another, then we should not speak them. Ephesians 4:29: “Let no corrupt word proceed out of your mouth, but what is good for necessary edification, that it may impart grace to the hearers.”

—Nicholas Endicott
