The Strength of Your Enemy Is Not Your Own

Those who oppose Christians and ultimately God, derive their strength (or so they think) from purely physical or worldly sources. Those who are rich and use it for no good believe they are strong because of their wealth. It is easy for us to say if we just had that much money, “Think of all the good we could do.” The problem is, we are placing our faith in a worldly thing instead of God. Instead we should say: “If God be with us, who can be against us?” Money, fame, etc. is not where we get our power. God can remove those things in an instant.

In Joshua 11, we see Joshua and the children of Israel arrayed against enemies the Bible describes as: “as many people as the sand that is on the seashore in multitude, with very many horses and chariots” (vs. 4). In that day and time an army’s strength was measured by its horses and chariots and troops. God told Joshua to not worry as He would deliver the enemies before Israel. God told him that when the victory was won to hamstring the horses and burn the chariots. Why? Wouldn’t it make sense to keep the horses and equipment for the future? No! God knew that some of the people would begin to think they were strong because of their worldly things instead of being God’s people.

What made Joshua’s enemies strong could not stand before God’s might. His enemies’ strength was a fraud. In the same way, we think of the evil that goes on in the world and their strengths. The wicked often have money and corrupt people in position to help them. We shouldn’t desire those things even if we believe we could use them for good. Yes, we can use money for the glory of God. We can vote for people in positions of power to aid us in our goals. We can’t forget that ultimately, our power comes from God. Matthew 6:33 tells us to “Seek first the Kingdom of God...” If we do that, the promise is that God will take care of the rest. It doesn’t mean we sit around and do nothing! But, we can’t attribute strength to our finances or positions. These are tools that God allows us to have if we are seeking His counsel and help.

Maybe you and I have some “horses to hamstring” in our lives. Maybe we’ve become dependent on worldly things that actually are hindering us instead of blessing us. Let us trust in God and know that His will shall be done. We are only as strong as the One who is with us.
