“Jesus, Our Example”

Peter records these words: “For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps” (1 Pet. 2:21). Jesus didn’t just save us from our sin. He showed us how to live. Christianity isn’t just what you believe. It’s who you follow. Jesus is the believer’s example to follow. You cannot claim Jesus as Savior and reject Him as Lord.

Jesus is our example in suffering: “For to this you were called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps” (1 Pet. 2:21). He didn’t retaliate (1 Pet. 2:23). No Facebook rants. He trusted God (1 Pet. 2:23). He kept going for the joy set before Him (Heb. 12:2).

Jesus is our example in prayer: “Now in the morning, having risen a long while before daylight, He went out and departed to a solitary place; and there He prayed” (Mk. 1:35). He prayed about big decisions: “Now it came to pass in those days that He went out to the mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God” (Lu. 6:12).

Jesus was our example in love: “A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another; as I have loved you, that you also love one another” (John 13:34). We are blessed to have an amazing example of love in Jesus Christ. Jesus said, “Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down one’s life for his friends” (John 15:13). And that’s exactly what He did (John 3:16).

Christ is the example for believers in life and godliness. It’s not like God says after baptism, you’re on your own. He provides the power to live the Christian life (Phil. 2:12-13). He also provides the example on how to live (Rom. 8:29-30). When it comes to prayer, Jesus makes it so easy because all we have to do is follow His example.

God bless, Ray
