TWO ARE BETTER THAN ONE

Everyone knows that holding hands with your spouse is romantic. But did you know it could be therapeutic? Neuroscientists at the University of Virginia found that married women under extreme stress who reach out and hold their husbands’ hands feel immediate relief. And not just any hand will do—their husband’s touch provided significantly more comforting than that of a stranger.

“The effect of this simple gesture of support is that the brain and the body don’t have to work as hard in response to a threat,” says the study’s lead author. “It’s deeply soothing.” So the next time you’re feeling stressed over deadlines at work, finances, or kids, grab your husband’s or wife’s hand. You will both feel better!

Solomon also had this figured out when he wrote in Ecclesiastes, “two are better than one” (Ecclesiastes 4:9).

VERSES OF THE WEEK

"But He was pierced through for our transgressions, He was crushed for our iniquities; The chastening for our well-being fell upon Him, And by His scourging we are healed. All of us like sheep have gone astray, Each of us has turned to his own way; But the LORD has caused the iniquity of us all To fall on Him."

Isaiah 53:5-6

There will be a memorial service to celebrate the life of Fran Goodpasture on Saturday, August 15th at 11:00 am. It will be held here at Garriott Rd.

The Encouragement Ministry is collecting cash and gift cards to help our three school teachers purchase supplies for this school year. These teachers are Tanner Black, John Crockett and Susannah Waide. If you would like to contribute, please put your donation in the designated box on the east credenza by Sunday, August 16th. Thank you!
