I Got Caught!

"I'm not perfect. I realize now that I have made some mistakes. I am willing to accept the consequences of those actions" (emphasis added). These words were the response from a man named Ryan Braun. He plays professional baseball for the Milwaukee Brewers. If you follow sports, you know what this statement references. If you don't, let me take a moment to explain. Ryan Braun is one of several players who were recently reported as buying and taking illegal performance-enhancing drugs from a source. Because of the evidence, Braun decided he would agree to a suspension which will last the remainder of this year. The above comment was his response to the suspension.

In truth, Braun's words ring pretty hollow. After all, it did not take this punishment for him to realize he was cheating and potentially breaking the law (depending on which drug he took). He knew right and wrong the entire time. It is not now that he realizes he was making a mistake ... it is now that he realizes he got caught! Most people in the world live like Ryan Braun. Only when we have been caught in an offense do we admit we have made a mistake. When we bring this into our spiritual lives, we realize just how dangerous this mindset can be.

Those who wish to make it to Heaven must confess their faults before God and man. They must live in a constant state of self-examination, self-improvement, and repentance. We must admit our mistakes long before Christ returns to settle our accounts. For those who live in a world where something is only wrong if you get caught, a shocking judgment is waiting. You see, in that final day, we won't have time to correct our mistakes. If we wait until judgment, we have waited too late. Let us never live in the make-believe world that Braun's statement discloses. Rather, let us always be men and women who admit our faults and find ways to remove them from our lives!

Prayer List:

Kay Howard...She flew to Chicago to support her daughter who ran a marathon there on Saturday. Kay will return home tomorrow. Please pray for her safety while in Chicago and for a safe flight home.

Garry Osburn.....He has an endoscopy at 8 am this Tuesday morning. Carolyn McLemore (Friend of Jan Tinsley).....She had a procedure on Friday. Christian Mendoza (Son of Lupe Mendoza, friend & coworker of Chris Nakvin-da)....Christian has an aggressive form of cancer, but his tumor has not grown in the last month! This news surprised his doctors. He is at MD Anderson.

Family of Brad McLerran (Son of Dwayne & Margaret)...Brad passed away on Friday night after a battle with brain cancer.

Jimmy Osburn (Brother of Garry)...He saw an eye specialist on Friday. They gave him a shot, with two more scheduled to follow in the coming weeks, and are hopeful that will clear up his vision.

Joy McCoy...Her back surgery on Tuesday went well. She is at St. Mary's Rehab and will be there for at least two weeks.

Family of Marla Arute (Grandmother of Kelly Crowl)...Marla passed away on Tuesday. Her funeral was yesterday in Purcell, OK.

Wilma Shell (Relative of Ray & Teresa Rose)...She has been in the hospital this past week with her blood and oxygen levels out of whack.
