Creative Ways to Share Your Faith

1. Each morning as you leave home, pray for opportunities to talk about Jesus. Pray for boldness to teach the gospel (Acts 4:29; Ephesians 6:19-20).
2. Invite one person to attend worship with you each Sunday. Always sit with guests in class and worship, even if you did not invite them. Never let a visitor or visiting family sit alone.
3. Do an act of service (i.e. babysitting, lawn care, etc.) each week or month as an inroad to developing interest in a Bible study. (Serve just to serve, but do not stop just with service – let it be a means to an end.)
4. Simply invite others to study the Bible with you. Many are interested and will agree. Live and speak the truth in love before them consistently (Eph. 4:15). Be patient and wait for hearts to open. Be available when someone says, "I want to study."
5. Share a tract or church bulletin with a friend. Ask the person to read it and tell you what he or she thinks about it (Matt. 22:42)
6. Build relationships and then use relationships to lead people to Christ. Humbly, genuinely love people. Identify burdens they bear and share their load (Gal. 6:2). Pray each day by name for those who are hurting.
7. Ask cashiers, waiters and waitresses if you can pray for them about anything. If they say no, tell them, "Remember, God loves you." If they say yes, ask them to stay with you while you pray. Earnestly pray for their request, then leave a card or contact info.
8. Share a new sermon on social media weekly. Use sermons from congregations in your area or the prospect's area so he or she can get to know a local church. You can also share resources from House to House, World Video Bible School, and Apologetics Press.
9. Offer to give someone a ride to worship.
10. Ask someone to read through a book of the Bible with you and talk about what you learn each week.
11. Make use of evangelism materials in the church lobby. (Many churches have racks and tables of good materials.) Take materials, study them and share with friends.
12. Invite visitors out to eat. Pray for the meal. Get to know them.
13. Give repeat visitors areas in which they can serve before conversion. Make them feel apart before they are "a part"; involve them in such things as helping decorate for VBS and cooking for Men's breakfast. This helps them get to know members and feel comfortable.
14. Follow up with every visitor before the following Sunday. Invite a non-Christian to your home for a game or meal.
15. Get some members together and go door knocking.
16. Share your evangelism opportunities with others for prayers and help. Share your experiences with others to get and give feedback on how to be better. "Iron sharpens iron, and one man sharpens another" (Prov. 27:17).

God bless, Ray
